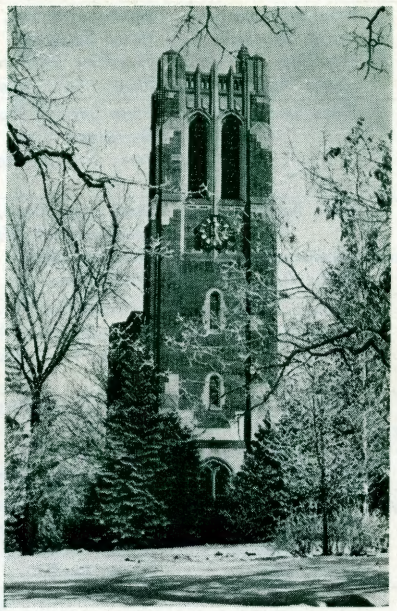
WKAR

BROADCASTING SERVICE OF
MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE

Vol. 15 November, 1948 No. 2

WKAR-FM

The time of year has again arrived when WKAR must remove programs from the air because of our license which limits broadcasting to the hours of daylight. Under the present assignment of WKAR issued by the Federal Communications Commission, the station is restricted to the hours between sun - up and sun - down. This necessitates the omission of those programs which fall beyond these hours.



Michigan State College has attempted to obtain fulltime operation for WKAR but under the present rules of the Commission this has not been possible. The Clear Channel Hearing, begun four years ago, has not been decided and this decision must be made before any relief can be anticipated.

But now that WKAR-FM is broadcasting a full schedule, the programs which cannot be broadcast over WKAR are still on the air over the Frequency Modulation station. All the favorites are being continued on the program and in addition many other new features have been added. WKAR-FM is on the air from 7:00 A. M. to 10:00 P. M.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

The Bookmobile is back after the summer vacation. This very popular children's program, presented with the cooperation of the Michigan State Library, features Uncle Bob and a group of boys and girls who assist him in presenting stories and other features. For a wholesome children's program we suggest the Bookmobile at 5:00 P. M., Monday through Friday.*

Mr. Laszlo Hetenyi, of the Department of Literature and Fine Arts, presents two programs each week discussing music, musicians and current musical information. "The Ins and Outs of Music," analyzing and explaining music for the layman, is heard each Thursday at 2:30 P. M.* On Tuesday at 7:30 P. M.  Mr. Hetenyi presents "Notes and Measures" in which commentary on current music and interviews with musicians will be given.

What is the meaning of the news regarding Berlin, Palestine, The United Nations, China and many other tension spots in the news? To discuss the implications of the negotiations in progress throughout the world and the nation, the Department of History and Political Science presents a weekly roundtable on current affairs. This program is heard each Friday at 7:30 P.M. For an appreciation of the background of the news tune in this interesting program. **
